

I disagree with the FCC's intention to have the New Jersey do not call registry law overturned. The state of New Jersey has chosen to provide its residents with a strong law against unwanted and annoying telemarketing phone calls. The alternative is to turn off or not answer the phone which is annoying an abridgement of my personal rights.